Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Conduct in-depth, detailed analysis and evaluation of the US Government wide Counterterrorism (CT) investments to independently document resource utilization, efficiency, productivity, and cost effectiveness levels.
- Plan, develop and present findings, conclusions, options, and recommendations to NCTC senior management, as well as National Security Council and Office of Management and Budget staff.
- Plan and produce CT resource strategies, analytical issue papers, strategic evaluations, background papers, talking points, resource issue papers, and other analytic products applying extensive subject matter knowledge to support senior CT policy officials making informed programmatic decisions.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Extensive knowledge of and experience with programmatic and financial management, strategic planning, and performance management.
- Demonstrated ability to apply analytic, quantitative, and qualitative techniques to analyze, evaluate, and recommend appropriate alternatives to complex issues.
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively with senior leadership to build consensus on contentious issues and to foster a collaborative work environment across the ODNI, IC and mission partners.

Desired Requirements

- Knowledge of the USG-wide CT efforts and its components, missions, and interrelationships, including a demonstrated ability to lead broad-based inter-agency teams.
